

On Tuesday November 27, 2012, SRI conducted the semi-annual audit. The review included an examination of our manufacturing and quality systems.

We are pleased to announce that for the second time in a row (third time overall), Crucible received ZERO non-conformances.

This is accomplished by a commitment to excellence by all our employees.